ABOUT ME

I am a student of the Bachelor of English Education Study Program at Surabaya State University who is disciplined, active, creative, has a leadership spirit, and has determination and a strong will to face challenges and learn new things. I am involved in various organizations and committees, which makes me have good self and time-management skills. Currently, I have taken the Study Independent as Front-end Engineering with ReactJs in Alterra Academy. Quickly adapting to new environments and working under pressure are other strengths that I have.
